ENRICHMENT GUIDELINES AND APPLICATION

REES-JONES GRANT

GUIDELINES

PURPOSE: The Rees-Jones Scholarship assists the students of Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts with finances needed to take full advantage of the educational opportunities the school offers them.

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP: The Rees-Jones Scholarships will be awarded to students, not to exceed $2,500 per request. Students from any grade may apply. The scholarship may be used for travel expenses for individual students to competitions, conferences, performances, auditions, and college visits, financial support for supplies and accessories necessary to accomplish portfolios and other school related projects and performances, or for college application expenses. The scholarship is not to be used for tuition.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA: The Rees-Jones Scholarship will be awarded to Booker T. Washington students in financial need. Qualified candidates will possess a GPA of 80 or above, a complete application (an application that is incomplete will not be considered), and a recommendation from a cluster teacher or an academic teacher, as well as demonstrate financial need and provide a written response to a question about reason(s) for applying for the Rees-Jones Scholarship, specific use and amount of funds requested and dates of the event (if applicable.)

SELECTION AND AWARD PROCESS:

- The Enrichment Committee of The Advisory Board will select each recipient.
- Each recipient will be required to send a thank you note and provide a report to both The Advisory Board and the Rees-Jones Scholarship Fund on how the scholarship funds were used.
